OCTOBER—DECEMBER 2021

The True Reality Of God's Purpose For Your Life

By: Christi Washington

So now, here we are in the last three months of the year 2021 and we are on the verge of 2022. What is God saying now? Well, instead of thinking the same and way we think about ourselves and just start accepting that our battle is already won. This has been the message that Bishop Knox has been teaching us and the message is also considered in our selection of songs i

That's what the Scripture means when it says:

"I have made you the father of many nations."

He is our example and father, for in God's presence he believed that God can raise the dead and call into being things that don't even exist yet. Against all odds, when it looked hopeless, Abraham believed the promise and expected God to fulfill it. He took God at his word, and as a result he became the father of many nations. God's declaration over him came to pass:

"Your descendants will be so many that they will be impossible to count!" In spite of being nearly one hundred years old when the promise of having a son was made, his faith was so strong that it could not be undermined by the fact that he and Sarah were incapable of conceiving a child. He never stopped believing God's promise, for he was made strong in his faith to father a child. And because he was mighty in faith and convinced that God had all the power needed to fulfill his promises, Abraham glorified God!

So now you can see why Abraham's faith was credited to his account as righteousness before God. And this declaration was not just spoken over Abraham, but also over us. For when we believe and embrace the one who brought our Lord Jesus back to life, perfect righteousness will be credited to our account as well. Jesus was handed over to be crucified for the forgiveness of our sins and was raised back to life to prove that he had made us right with God! Romans 4: 17-25(PT)

Thank God For His Manifestations Of Miracles & Blessings

By: Renee Allen

The miracles and blessings that I have experienced in the past couple of months have been

"This feast will be held at the sanctuary, which will be located at the place the Lord will designate. It is a time of deep thanksgiving to the Lord for blessing you with a good harvest and in so many other ways; it shall be a time of great joy." Deut. 15:16 (KJV) breath-taking. I was ill and had to stay in the hospital. That is where I found myself in a battle for my life. I could not breathe. I would pray and ask God to just let me breathe. When there was no relief, I gave up. I couldn't do it anymore. I had settled in my mind that I was surely going to die. On my third night in ICU, Bishop Knox called me. I told him I was giving up and before I could finish he said, 'That's ok, let's pray..'. That very night, my status changed and the next morning I was out ICU. Ever since then I have been improving. The blessings & miracles that I have received, just in the last couple of months, are too numerous to list. But I thank God for life and life more abundantly and for my new journey in Him.

Giving God thanks for the manifestation of miracles and blessings.

n the worship department. But many people are still asking themselves questions like, God, is this really going to happen? Lord, I've prayed, I've sowed, and I have given my time to serve in the Kingdom Covenant Community, where is my blessing with my name on it? Yeah, we have all asked ourselves those questions. But what if God is already speaking through the temporary challenges we are having right now? Not as a punishment or delay, but as a sign we are on the edge of manifestations of blessings or the fulfillment of prophecies. We are living in a time when the world is no longer a normal place like it once was, but God knew all along what was going to happen because nothing takes Him by surprise. So in a sense, did you stop to think that this is a setup for your great harvest or breakthrough to come? Yes, I know it's been rough and we have all gone through many changes that can frustrate us at times. However, it's amazing how some type of opposition happens just before a miracle takes place, or a promise is being fulfilled. First, you must come to accept that the world has changed, but it is also a sign that there is an opening for a great harvest to come and promised favor upon your life. It is important that your world must change in order to make room for manifestations in your life. So in all things, whether it be COVID or the Delta Variant, taking a vaccine or not, economic instability, masks mandate, the looming of social distance, employees getting laid off or quitting, the frustration of crucial medicals/CDC protocols, political unrest, racial unrest, personal challenges, and even at death's door, remember your trust and foundation is in God and His word of promise. Look at the story of Abraham. So with that being said, the month of October has been declared to be the month of Harvest! Now the question is, Are you ready?
